1. With effect from 01 Jan 2016, the Registrar shall, in respect of every private company, keep and maintain an electronic register of members (EROM) of that company containing such information notified to the Registrar on or after that date. Any entry in the EROM is prima facie evidence of the truth of any matters which are by the Act directed or authorised to be entered or inserted into the EROM. A private company is required to notify the Registrar of the information to be entered in the EROM. Until the company provides complete information to the Registrar, its EROM may not contain any information or may only contain partial information.
2. Please also note that the EROM will not display historical information kept in the company's register of members before 01 Jan 2016, and the company is required to retain its existing register of members, and the information of persons who have ceased to be members.
3. Please approach the company directly if you wish to inspect to its existing register of members and the historical information kept in it.

Please refer to the online BizFile+ Glossary for the full meanings of the acronyms used in this register.
